DISCLAIMER

I have read and understood MountainSeekers terms and conditions and I expressly agree to abide by their terms of business. I certify that I hold a valid certificate of travel insurance that includes the ability to get me (and my pillion if applicable) home in the event of illness, accident, or emergency.

I understand that MountainSeekers reserve the right at their absolute discretion to terminate my holiday without prior notice should they deem my behaviour to be such that it is likely in their opinion to cause danger, annoyance or damage to any other person or property.

I understand in such circumstances, no refund or compensation will be due to me.

RELEASE OF LIABILITY AND ASSUMPTION OF ALL RISKS.

I acknowledge that participation is entirely at my own risk and that motorcycling and travelling entails known and unanticipated risks. I also accept that such risks simply cannot be eliminated without jeopardising the essential qualities of the activity. The risks include, but are not limited to travelling in mountainous terrain, altitude, civil unrest, forces of nature, all forms of transportation, accident or illness in remote areas without means of rapid evacuation or proper medical facilities. I hereby release MountainSeekers, any members of staff or contractors from any and all liability arising from physical or emotional injury, paralysis, illness, death, delays, loss or damage to property, or to third parties, recklessness of any kind, and from any and all claims, demands or expenses resulting from the tour. I expressly agree and promise to accept and assume all of the risks existing in this activity. I accept that participation in this activity is purely voluntary, and I elect to participate in spite of the risks.

The above release of liability and assumption of all risks statement applies to all members of my family and are binding upon my heirs, legal representatives and assigns.
